Full Semester (Traditional)

Courses are 14 weeks in length and meet in-class weekly face-to-face for three hours with limited to no expectation of online activities.

Accelerated/Blended

Courses are typically seven weeks in length and are comprised of standard intervals of face-to-face in-class activities and online interactions. For instance, a blended class will meet face-to-face weekly for 3 hours a week and the equivalent amount of time will be spent participating in web based activities such as asynchronous discussions, simulations and the review of video and web based content.
