REGISTRATION DATES AND TIMES FOR WINTER INTERSESSION 2027

Dates students may begin to register for the Winter Intercession are the same as the spring registration dates:

Date	Group	Credits (completed & currently enrolled)
Tuesday, November 3	GROUP 1	84 +
Thursday, November 5	GROUP 2	54 – 83
Tuesday, November 10	GROUP 3	26 – 53
Friday, November 13	GROUP 4	0 – 25

Registration times are based on completed credits plus current registered credits.

Winter Intercession courses are available for viewing and registration on the same timeline as courses for the spring semester. Students are required to work directly with their advisor regarding winter intercession courses.

Registering & Paying for Winter Intercession Courses

- Students have access to view winter intercession courses in Student Planning and the course booklet available on the Robbins Family Center for Advising & Career Planning department page on myDean.
- Students interested in taking a winter intercession course should meet with their advisor during the regularly scheduled registration period to review options and plan their winter intercession courses.
- When a student has decided to take a winter intercession course(s), the advisor works with the student to complete the “Winter Intercession 2027 Student Registration” form.
- To be officially registered for a winter intercession course, payment is required. There is a $25 registration fee plus tuition for each course. Students are responsible for contacting Student Financial Planning for payment. Once a student has paid their balance, they will be registered for their winter intercession course(s) assuming space is available.

Winter Intersession Course Offerings

All Winter Intersession courses are scheduled for four (4) weeks, starting on Monday, December 21, 2026, and ending on Friday, January 15, 2027.
All courses are offered as online asynchronous courses.

The following courses meet ASYNCHRONOUSLY online. This means students will be responsible for setting their own hours to read/view/listen to their course materials, to work on assignments, and to respond to discussion forums in their online classroom. Students should plan to log in to their Canvas classroom at least five or more days per week to do classwork. These courses are recommended for students who have good time management and organizational skills as well as can self-motivated.

SPECIAL TOPICS COURSE OFFERING (COURSE DESCRIPTION)

GLO-399-OL1 -- The End of Modernity? Contemporary Global History (3 cr)

Have we just lived through the end of the Modern Age? This course looks at our contemporary global society from many angles and asks the question, "How did we get where we are?" We will consider fields as diverse as environmental issues, globalization and politics, the biomedical revolution, post-modernism, and more, as we try to untangle the complicated world in which we live. Students from all majors will find subjects of interest, and students will be able to research topics of special importance to themselves, individually, as well. The course fulfills an Upper Division Liberal Arts elective requirement or a free elective requirement.
